1. Scope and field of application

The content and preamble indicate that the AS is a copy of an earlier version of the IS.

1.1. Assessment - ISO is a suitable replacement

2. References

Equivalent

2.1. Assessment - ISO is a suitable replacement

3. Definitions

Equivalent

4. Principle of operation

This topic is structured differently in the ISO but the content is the same, just in different locations. The ISO section 4 and 5 cover AS section 4.

4.1. Assessment - ISO is a suitable replacement

5. Operational requirements

This topic is structured differently in the ISO but the content is the same, just in different locations. The ISO section 6 and 7 cover AS section 5.

5.1. Assessment - ISO is a suitable replacement

6. Construction features

This topic is structured differently in the ISO but the content is the same, just in different locations. The ISO section 7 and 'Annex A' cover AS section 6.

6.1. Assessment - ISO is a suitable replacement

7. Calibration

This section is a functional subset of section 9 of the ISO. The ISO does not introduce any unreasonable requirements.

7.1. Assessment - ISO is a suitable replacement

8. Maintenance

This is covered in 'Annex B' of the ISO standard, the ISO content is of greater depth than the AS and does not impose anything of issue.
